

The St. Louis Police Department is attempting to return property to the rightful owners. The Department has a large amount of unclaimed property and evidence that was seized by officers and is no longer or was never needed for court proceedings. The owners of these items are either unknown or attempts to notify the owners have been unsuccessful. The Department intends on disposing of the items of unclaimed property listed below if the owners of the items do not retrieve their belongings within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the first publication of this notice.

Hats	Tires	Tape	Windows	Fire debris
Bricks	Photographs	Ladders	Notebooks	Business/Personal documents
Rocks	Pictures	Pillows	Toys	Computers & parts
Sticks	Frames	Letters	Rifles	Cameras & equipment
Bats	Shoes	Pistols	Masks	License plates
Cooking Items	Shell casings	Garden Tools	Receipts	Construction equipment & material
Electronics	Radios	Lights	Railing	Articles of clothing & accessories
Bags	car parts	Bullets	Documents	Sports equipment
Bottles and cans	Kitchen utensils	Cassette Tapes	Statements	Musical equipment
DVD's	Bikes	Glasses	Reports	Shotguns
VHS Tapes	Appliances	Furniture	Books	Various bedding items
Gloves	Office Utensils	Revolvers	Backpacks	Various pieces of metals
Edged weapons	Phones	Currency	Purses	Brushes / Combs
Irons	Boxes	Hygiene products	Stools	Power & Hand Tools

If you believe that the Police Department has possession of an item that belongs to you, you are advised to bring the police report number with you, along with valid identification and proof of ownership to the Property Custody Division at Police Headquarters, 1200 Clark, St. Louis, MO 63103. Forms will be available for you to fill out which will assist us to determine if we have an item that belongs to you. You will be notified within 10 days of submitting the form. You may also go to the Department Website SLMPD.ORG and click on the Unclaimed Property link at the bottom of the page to submit your information.

10241097 City, May 14, 2010