Department to Open Satellite Internal Affairs Offices

In Addition to Online Complaint-Filing, Citizens Will Now Have 6 Different Locations to File in Person

On Tuesday, February 2, 2010, the Metropolitan Police Department, City of St. Louis (“the department”) will begin operating two satellite locations of the Internal Affairs Division (IAD), with IAD investigators now having office space at the following locations:

NAACP St. Louis City Branch
625 N. Euclid Ave., Suite 460
St. Louis, Mo., 63108
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
12-4 p.m.

Thomas Dunn Memorials
3113 Gasconade St.
St. Louis, Mo., 63118
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday
12-4 p.m.

The NAACP and Thomas Dunn Memorials were chosen for their central locations near main thoroughfares. Both organizations are providing office space to the department at no charge. The satellite locations are being offered as a convenience to citizens who, for whatever reason, cannot file a complaint through any of the current methods, which include filing a complaint online at www.slmpr.org or filing a complaint in person at any of the following locations:

- Police Headquarters, 1200 Clark Avenue, 63103
- North Patrol, 4014 N. Union, 63115
- Central Patrol, 919 N. Jefferson, 63103
- South Patrol, 3157 Sublette, 63139

It is the department’s hope that the new off-site locations will address concerns from those who may be unwilling or unable to access a computer for online complaint filing and also the concerns of those who may be hesitant to file a complaint in person at a police location.

The overwhelming majority of department employees serve with honor, integrity, pride and a commitment to doing the right thing. Still, the department remains dedicated to providing the people of St. Louis the best police service possible and that includes thoroughly investigating complaints, and leveling appropriate consequences if violations are found to have occurred.
